

What is claimed:

1. Diagnostic Method of Hemolytic Anemia, which detect the number of damaged RBCs and discriminate newly produced significant schistocytes from insignificant old schistocytosis,
- 5 including the steps of :
staining two microliter of peripheral blood isolated from a patient with PE conjugated antihemoglobin (anti-Hb) antibody in 0.6% NaCl for 15 minutes at room temperature, adding 3ml of saline without wash, and
- 10 analyzing the samples by flow cytometry.